

Answers to the Migration Museum Project's Quiz:

How much do you know about Germany? How much do you know about the relationship between Germany and the UK?

- This quiz is intended for use with KS3 and KS4 pupils learning German alongside our exhibition 'Germans in Britain'.
- The exhibition is up at the German Historical Institute, London, in September and October 2014 and then on tour in the UK
- You can see the information from the exhibition on pdfs, available from education officer Emily Miller
- The first 16 questions of the quiz are general knowledge about Germany. The next 9 questions in part 2 are about Anglo-German relations
- This quiz uses ideas from a resource shared on TES

If, on reflection, this quiz covers topics that are too advanced for your pupils have a look at the kids area of the UK German Connection website for activities, games etc.

Answers

- 1) B - Austria and Switzerland
- 2) D - Hello
- 3) C - Berlin
- 4) C - David Schwimmer ('Friends' star, he is American)
- 5) A - 80 million. The 2014 census estimate is 80,716,000
- 6) A - a wall.
- 7) D - CSKA Moskva
- 8) C - states. Germany is made up of 16 states, a bit like counties in the UK
- 9) D - first, they beat Argentina

- 10) B - Sausages (somewhat of a stereotype a la fish and chips for Britain, but you can discuss!)
- 11) C - A German airline
- 12) A - Goodbye
- 13) C - Ford
- 14) B - Euros
- 15) A - The German Parliament or 'Bundestag'
- 16) B - Black, red and yellow

Part 2

- 1) D - Doc Martens - The famous air-cushioned sole in 'Doc Martens' was developed by two Munich doctors, Dr. Märtens and Dr. Funck. In 1960 a Northamptonshire firm, Griggs & Co, started using the soles in safety shoes for British workmen. 'DM's also became a footwear favourite for British youth and were restyled for a fashion market in the 1990s.
[Birkenstocks are also German and you can give a point for this too]
- 2) A - approx. There were 273,654 German-born British in 2011 census
- 3) C - 95,000. There are 96,938 British born people living in Germany according to this article
- 4) D - Anglo Saxon
- 5) A - British Gas - Two German chemists, Frederick Winzer from Brunswick and Frederick Accum from Buckeburg, built London's first gas works. Their Gas Light and Coke Company eventually became British Gas.
- 6) C - 10,000 approx. See the Kindertransport Association for more details
- 7) D - Handel - the piece is 'Zadok the Priest'
- 8) D - Arsenal - At the time of the exhibition going to print there are 19 German footballers playing in Britain's Premier League clubs; Arsenal with the most.
- 9) B - Portugal won 3-1